Find one-of-a-kind items in Gallery Shop for holiday gifts

Upcoming exhibitions include Craft Forms 2017

Wooden cutting boards

Wayne Art Center presents its new merchandise in the Gallery Shop for holiday gift purchasing. Gallery Shop hours are Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Find one-of-a-kind, hand-crafted items in good of USA, thoughtfully designed and affordable craft pieces.

During December and January, the Gallery Shop will exclusively feature Craft Forms 2017 and Breaking the Glass Ceiling: Women in Glass artisans exhibiting smaller functional works for gift giving.

For information, phone 610-688-3553 or visit www.waynecenter.org.

The Gallery Shop offers more than 150 craft makers that create precious metal, bead and glass jewelry, silk and cotton apparel jackets, shirts and scarves, home décor in wood, glass, textiles, candles, giftbales, greeting cards and poetic books. Some of the featured artisans include Leni Hoch scarves and Plovanova socks and gloves, Victoria Kavalzerov, Royce Yoder and Michael Smyser ceramics, Mike Giuliano wood accessories, East Fall Glass and Pittsburgh Glass Center glass ornaments and numerous fine jewelers like PO Designs by Susie Murphy, Croisoles by Janet Gossow, Mack and Jane by Jane Makransky plus many more craft artists. Gallery Shop prices range from $5 to $500 in order for buyers to purchase gifts for everyone on their holiday and celebration list.

Upcoming exhibitions include Craft Forms 2017, the International Juried Exhibition of Fine Contemporary Crafts, juried by Nora Atkinson of the Renwick Gallery at the Smithsonian American Art Museum. These award-winning works in metal, fiber, wood, glass, ceramic, and mixed media represent the pinnacle of fine craft from around the world in the state of the art Davenport Gallery. Simultaneously, this year's companion show, Breaking the Glass Ceiling: Women in Glass, curated by Dr. Ariene Silvers focuses on over 100 works by over 22 invitational glass artists in the Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith Gallery. The exhibition surveys female glass artists, from the "Grand Dames" of the 70s to the "Young Turks" of the 21st century, and shows many achievements of women working with glass, from the male-dominated Studio Glass Movement of the 1960s to the present.

In addition, Patrick Lee's solo painting exhibition, Excursions, and Wayne Art Center faculty member, Val Rossman and students show, Exploration/Inspiration/Abstraction will all be on display from Dec. 8, 2017 through Jan. 27, 2018. Numerous events and patron tours are planned during this time.

For information, visit www.craftforms.org for ticket and event information.

Wayne Art Center is located at 413 Maplewood Avenue in Wayne, PA, and offers 30,000 square feet of state-of-the-art, fully accessible facilities, beautiful gardens, free private parking and an adjacent five-mile trail, all within walking distance of public transportation.
